

1 day ago★

Jobless Claims Come in Higher Than Expected

By Angela Palumbo

...

Jobless claims increased more than expected last week as continuing claims hit the highest level since 2021.

Initial claims rose to 231,000 last week, an increase of 13,000 from the previous week's revised level, according to the Labor Department. Economists surveyed by FactSet were expecting jobless claims of 220,000.