S&P 500, Nasdaq Composite Snap Losing Streaks

By Karishma Vanjani

... THE DOW JONES INDUSTRIAL AVERAGE, MEANWHILE, GAINED 0.1%, OR 20 POINTS.

Despite Friday's performance, the S&P ended the week 1.5% lower—snapping nine consecutive weeks of gains and the index's best run since 2004. The Dow and the Nasdaq posted weekly losses of 0.6% and 3.2%, respectively. The indexes' weekly losses may signal that the 2023 rally won't continue in 2024.
