

Markets | Commodities

Gas Prices Surge as Qatar Shuts World's Largest LNG Export Plant

na11111 Jaalal/AGG/Getty Images

By Elena Mazneva, Stephen Stapczynski, and Salma El Wardany

3rd party ad content

MARCH 2, 2026 at 6:05 AM CST

Updated on March 2, 2026 at 11:32 AM CST

...

Qatar shut LNG production at the world's largest export facility after it was targeted in an Iranian drone attack, sending European gas prices surging as much as 54%.

...

While Asian countries buy most of the LNG shipped from the Middle East, a disruption will increase competition for alternative supplies and push up prices worldwide.